

RESOLUTION NO. 2025-_____

A Resolution approving amendments to the Rules and Regulations for the Civil Service of the City of Bethlehem.

WHEREAS, at a duly authorized meeting of the Civil Service Board of the City of Bethlehem on April 15, 2025, the Civil Service Board, in a 3-0 vote, unanimously recommended that City Council adopt the amendments to Appendix A of the rules and regulations of the Civil Service Board, affecting the Fire Department, specifically set forth in Section 3(d), Section 5(a)(i) and Section 5(c)(i) of said Appendix, which are reflected in Exhibit “A” attached hereto, wherein deletions are denoted by ~~striketrough~~ and additions (other than existing section headings, which are already underlined in bold), are denoted by bolded underline;

WHEREAS, the amendments recommended by the Civil Service Board are intended to accommodate recent changes in fire board certifications offered by the Pennsylvania Department of Labor & Industry; and

WHEREAS, the Council of the City of Bethlehem believes that the amendments to the rules and regulations recommended by the Civil Service Board and attached to this Resolution as Exhibit “A” provide for ascertaining and determining, so far as possible, the knowledge, skills, aptitude, mental and physical abilities, experience, education and character of all applicants for the civil service as these criteria would reasonably apply to the respective positions.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Council of the City of Bethlehem that the said Council hereby approves the amendments to the rules and regulations recommended by the Civil Service Board of the City of Bethlehem on April 15, 2025, which are attached to this Resolution as Exhibit “A” and which shall take immediate effect.

Section 3: Examination Prerequisites for Promotional Examinations

(a) To be eligible to undergo any examination for appointment to the rank of Lieutenant (which shall include the positions of Lieutenant and Lieutenant Inspector for purposes of these Rules and Regulations for the Fire Department) in the Fire Department, an individual must be presently employed as a Firefighter in the Fire Department for a minimum of six (6) years at the time of the scheduled examination date.

(b) To be eligible to undergo any examination for appointment to the rank of Captain (which rank shall include the positions of Captain, Training Captain, and Inspections Captain for purposes of these Rules and Regulations for the Fire Department) in the Fire Department, an individual must be presently employed at the rank of Lieutenant in the Fire Department for a minimum of two (2) years at the time of the scheduled examination date.

(c) To be eligible to undergo any examination for appointment to the rank of Assistant Chief in the Fire Department, an individual must be presently employed at the rank of Captain in the Fire Department for a minimum of two (2) years at the time of the scheduled examination date.

(d) To be eligible to undergo any examination for promotion to the rank of Deputy Chief in the Fire Department, an individual must be presently employed at the rank of Assistant

Exhibit "A"

Chief or Captain in the Fire Department for a minimum of two (2) years at the time of the scheduled examination date. Prior to the examination date, the employee must also possess the following certifications: (1) NIMS 100, 200, 300, 400, 700, and 800; (2) NFPA 1021 Fire Officer 2; (3) NFPA 1031 Fire Inspector 2 or NFPA 1030 Fire Inspector; and (4) Fire Plans Examiner Pro Board Certification. In addition, prior to the examination date, the employee must be recognized as a Certified Fire Investigator through one of the following national agencies: Pro Board, IAAI, NAFL, or National Fire Academy. The Fire Department shall ensure that an employee is afforded sufficient time to attend prerequisite classes in their entirety and, while attending such classes, the employee shall be compensated for his/her normal work shift. No overtime shall be paid to an employee for attending classes. Backfilling of personnel shall follow existing overtime policies.

(e) If no applicants are eligible to test for a vacant position, the test process will be opened to additional candidates as recommended by the Board.

Section 4: Promotional Examinations

(a) Those candidates seeking promotion to the rank of Lieutenant shall be examined for the position as follows: (1) submission to a written examination; (2) comparative seniority; and (3) submission to a departmental evaluation, the format of which shall be agreed to by both Local 735 and the Fire Chief and the results of which shall be graded, scored and averaged by all platoon officers. There shall be one written examination for all Lieutenant positions (Lieutenant and Lieutenant Inspector) and it will be comprised of questions relevant to both positions. A passing score on the written examination shall be 70 points out of 100 points. An individual who fails the written test may not be promoted to the position sought. Comparative seniority for individuals passing the written test shall be calculated on the basis of length of service in the candidate's present position with the candidate having the most seniority receiving fifteen (15) points and each other candidate receiving the direct proportion of fifteen (15) points that his/her seniority, measured in months, is to the months of the candidate having the most seniority. This definition of "comparative seniority" shall apply to any subsection of this Section 4. The maximum potential score on the departmental evaluation shall be fifteen (15) points. The written examination score shall be 70% of the total examination score; the comparative seniority of the candidate shall be 15% of the total examination score; and the score of the departmental evaluation agreed to by both the Fire Chief and Local 735 shall be 15% of the total examination score.

(b) Those candidates seeking promotion to the rank of Captain shall be examined for the position as follows: (1) submission to a written examination; (2) submission to an oral examination; and (3) comparative seniority. There shall be one written examination for all Captain positions (Captain, Inspections Captain, and Training Captain) and it will be comprised of questions relevant to all Captain positions. A passing score on the written examination shall be 70 points out of 100 points. A passing score on the oral examination shall be 70 points out of 100 points.

The oral examination shall be conducted by a group, selected by the Board, of Fire Chiefs and/or Deputy Fire Chiefs from Pennsylvania municipalities. The group conducting the oral examination shall be familiar with all City Fire Department policies, rules and regulations, and standard operating procedures and guidelines. The written examination shall be conducted prior to the oral examination, and a candidate must pass the written examination to be eligible for the oral examination. A candidate must achieve passing scores on both the written and oral examinations to be eligible for promotion to the position. The written examination score shall be 70% of the total examination score; the oral examination score shall be 15% of the total examination score; and (3) the comparative seniority of the candidate shall be 15% of the total examination score.

(c) Those candidates seeking promotion to the rank of Assistant Chief shall be examined for the position as follows: (1) submission to a written examination; (2) submission to an oral examination; and (3) comparative seniority. A passing score on the written examination shall be 70 points out of 100 points. A passing score on the oral examination shall be 70 points out of 100 points. The oral examination shall be conducted by a group, selected by the Board, of Fire Chiefs and/or Deputy Fire Chiefs from Pennsylvania municipalities. The group conducting the oral examination shall be familiar with all City Fire Department policies, rules and regulations, and standard operating procedures and guidelines. The written examination shall be conducted prior to the oral examination, and a candidate must pass the written examination to be eligible for the oral examination. A candidate must achieve passing scores on both the written and oral examinations to be eligible for promotion to the position. The written examination score shall be 45% of the total examination score; the oral examination score shall be 45% of the total examination score; and (3) the comparative seniority of the candidate shall be 10% of the total examination score.

(d) Those candidates seeking promotion to the rank of Deputy Chief shall be examined for the position as follows: (1) submission to an oral examination. A passing score on the oral examination shall be 70 points out of 100 points. The oral examination shall be conducted by a group, selected by the Board, of fire chiefs and/or deputy fire chiefs from Pennsylvania municipalities. The group conducting the oral examination shall be familiar with all City Fire Department policies, rules and regulations, and standard operating procedures and guidelines.

(d) The Fire Department shall ensure that an employee is afforded sufficient time to attend prerequisite classes in their entirety and, while attending such classes, the employee shall be compensated for his/her normal work shift. No overtime shall be paid to an employee for attending classes. Backfilling of personnel shall follow existing overtime policies.

Section 6: Probationary Periods

(a) The probationary period for a newly hired Firefighter shall be one (1) year. A probationary Firefighter will not be deemed to be a regular, non-probationary employee until he/she successfully completes his/her one (1) year probationary period. All newly hired Firefighters must successfully complete all areas of Fire Academy Training. Failure to complete Fire Academy Training will result in termination of employment. A failure to successfully complete the one (1) year probationary period shall result in the probationary employee's discharge from the Fire Department. A probationary Firefighter shall submit to an evaluation by the applicable department/platoon supervisor prior to the end of the one year probationary period.

(b) The probationary period for an individual promoted or appointed to the ranks of Lieutenant, Captain, Assistant Chief, or Deputy Chief in the Fire Department shall be one (1) year. Probationary Lieutenants, Captains, Assistant Chiefs, and Deputy Chief shall submit to an evaluation by the applicable department/platoon supervisor after six (6) months of probationary status and shall submit to a second such evaluation at the conclusion of the probationary period. Both evaluations shall be reviewed by the Fire Chief and Deputy Chief at the conclusion of the probationary period, except that the evaluation for any probationary Deputy Chief shall be reviewed only by the Fire Chief. Probationary Lieutenants, Captains, Assistant Chiefs, and Deputy Chief will not be deemed to be a regular, non-probationary employee until both (a) one year has elapsed since his/her probationary appointment and (b) the Fire Chief has determined, upon review of the six-month and one-year evaluations, that the probationary Lieutenant, Captain, Assistant Chief, or Deputy Chief has successfully completed the probationary period.

(c) Unless otherwise provided by law, applicable collective bargaining agreement, or these Civil Service Rules, the privileges and obligations of civil service status shall not apply during an employee's probationary status except in that no appointee shall be removed or transferred for any political reason whatever.

(d) The Mayor shall put in writing the reason for the dismissal of any probationary employee, and a copy of thereof shall be entered in the Civil Service Minute Book.

(e) An employee promoted to the rank of Lieutenant shall have one (1) year from the date of promotion to pass Fire Officer 1 Pro Board Certification. Failure to complete all requirements of this subsection (e) shall result in the employee returning to his/her previous position. The Fire Department shall ensure that an employee is afforded sufficient time to attend prerequisite classes in their entirety and, while attending such classes, the employee shall be compensated for his/her normal work shift. No overtime shall be paid to an employee for attending classes. Backfilling of personnel shall follow existing overtime policies.

(f) An employee promoted to the rank of Captain shall have one (1) year from the date of promotion to obtain Fire Officer 2 Pro Board Certification. Failure to complete all requirements of this subsection (f) shall result in the employee returning to his/her previous position. The Fire Department shall ensure that an employee is afforded sufficient time to attend prerequisite classes in their entirety and, while attending such classes, the employee shall be compensated for his/her normal work shift. No overtime shall be paid to an employee for attending classes. Backfilling of personnel shall follow existing overtime policies.
