PRESS RELEASE

June 8, 2020

Mayor Bob Donchez announced today the opening of the Theis/Cornfeld Recycling Center. The facility will be opening June 10, 2020. Hours of operation will be Tuesday through Saturday 10:00 am to 4:00 pm. The facility will be closed Sunday and Monday.

People wishing to utilize the facility are required to wear a mask for their safety as well as the safety of City employees. People not wearing a mask will not be permitted to enter the facility.

Please see additional information below:

- Masks required for entry and when using the facility. If you or your occupant(s) do not have a mask, you will not be permitted to use the facility.
- For the safety of your beloved pets, please leave them home. Pets are not permitted inside the facility, even if left in your vehicle.
- Initially, the facility will be open to City of Bethlehem residents and businesses ONLY. You must have a valid driver's license/proof of ID showing your City of Bethlehem address. If you do not have a license, you will not be permitted to use the facility.
- The facility will be open to the general public beginning Thursday June 25, 2020 (this includes non-City of Bethlehem residents and businesses).
- Shredding services will not be available during the initial opening. However, you will be permitted to drop office paper materials into the container. The City will notify the public when shredding services resume.
- Used clothing/textiles will not be accepted during the initial opening. The City will notify the public when we can begin to accept these items.
- Parking will be limited. We ask that you exercise patience and be prepared for long wait times upon entering the facility.
- We request you practice appropriate Social Distancing while utilizing the facility.
- As a courtesy to other patrons, we ask that you be as efficient as possible when dropping off materials.
- Hours of operation: Tuesday through Saturday 10 am to 4 pm. Closed Sunday & Monday

As always, please monitor the City's website at www.bethlehem-pa.gov and social media for additional information on City facilities, public meetings and updates on COVID-19.
