The Bethlehem Chamber of Commerce maintains the Bethlehem Chamber Board and its committees, including the Citizen's Christmas City Committee (CCCC), the Bethlehem Marketing Council (BMC), and all associated committees existing or formed as needed; and the Downtown Bethlehem Association (DBA) and all associated committees existing or formed as needed. The Bethlehem Chamber of Commerce also carries out the management and implementation of marketing events geared toward strengthening the City of Bethlehem's visitor draw and local businesses' visibility and viability.

Funding from the City of Bethlehem is allocated to the following activities:

- Reasons for recommendation of Administration and Council approval of contract:
The Greater Lehigh Valley Chamber of Commerce has effectively managed and implemented marketing efforts for the various groups and sub-committees who are dedicated to the economic vitality of the Bethlehem business community for more than a decade.

The organization is poised to provide the professional services required and effectively maintains existing relationships with the various committees and complimentary organizations.

The Chamber has carried out the mission of promoting and marketing the City's downtown districts in a manner that has not only resulted in the strengthening of Bethlehem's urban core but at a cost that likely could not be matched had the city hired its own staff to do so.

Please approve this recommendation by passing the accompanying resolution. A vote of final approval is requested at the first City Council agenda listing of this matter.
